Comedy, peculiar fire and explosion which "Nearly Mar-ied," starring Monte Quan sustained his fatal burns in a peculiar fire and explosion which partially wrecked one of his houses in Cuber addition shortly after midnish ton the morning of June 23. The house smelled strongly of gasoline when firemen arrived to quench the flames and evidences of sprung doors and windows and holes in the floor and roof indicated that there had been an explosion. Quan was found several hours later in the basement of the American Kitchen, of which he is proprietor, where the burns he sustained in the fire were causing him intense pain.

Chinese friends visited Quan frequently at the hospital during his confinement. It is said that he refused at various times to make any statement concerning the fire, and even on the death bed would make no explanation as to how it had occurred.

PLYMOUTH ROCK BACK IN PLACE

The historic Plymouth Rock, on which the Pilgrims landed, has been from an auto trip to Prescott, where they attended the big Fourth of July celebration.

The party left Tempe Saturday and arrived in Prescott Sunday. While there, they stayed at Granite Della a beautiful camping ground six miles from Prescott. They report a most enjoyable trip in every way. During their short stay in the mile high city they met several Tempe families spending the summer there, who, like themselves were quite delighted with the lovely scenery and fine climate in and around Prescott.

Leaves For Bisbee.

Mrs. Alice Brerden of Bisbee, left The publication of the so-called "slacker list" is by official request of the United States government, which takes the position that any man who has tailed to straighten out his draft board record is constructively guilty of military desertion, regardless of where or how he may have served. The official list may contain names of some who served gallantly during the World War, but whose names are still carr.ed as delinquent, due to their failure to correct the record. To guard against this, every effort is being made to check up on the war department's listing, and, as far as possible to examine each case.

Chicago Board

CHICAGO, July 5.—Lower temperatures northwest, together with rains in various sections, had a beartsh effect on the wheat market today. Declines were checked, however, by assertions from a leading crop expert that as a result of the hot wave the forthcoming government crop report would show a reduction of 25,000,000 bushels in the estimated yield as compared with the last report. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1% to 3%c lower, with September $1.18% to $1.20 and December $1.20, were followed by a moderate further setback and then something of a raily. Corn descended with wheat. After opening % to 1%c lower, including September at 80% to 51%, the market eased off a little additional before beginning to react.

Outs were easier in response to the weakness of other cereals, starting % 6%c to %c lower, September 38 to 38%, and showing but little power to recover.

Provisions lacked support and had a downward stant notwithstanding higher quotations on hogs.

Regardless of a decrease in the visible supply total, absence of demand led to decided further setbacks in the later trading. The close was heavy, 5% to 6%c net lower, with September $1.15% to $1.16 and December $1.16%.
